MEN ON PAROLE*OWNERS FROM OGLE-

by Officials.

A number of prisoners coming from the barracks at the army post have been paroled over the country, and where they have been released, they have had their cases investigated by different agents of the department of the army. Those who have been released are allowing a parole. Most of the men released from the local camp are in the United States army and are being released from the army. They are Germans and were in on account of never having out naturalization papers of the first papers.

Several men being paroled are over to the local department of justice and are sent to various places where they have secured employment. A number of men paroled have been sent to lumber camps in the mountains. A supervisor is appointed to the men released from the local camp and are in the charge of the supervisor appointed for the place where they are to secure work. Often the employer or some responsible person is appointed to look after the men who have to report to the department of justice each week. It is known that a few of the prisoners employed in this city, and they report each week to the local department of justice.

Men released have to secure work before they are released and the supervisor is held responsible for the released prisoner. The local department of justice officials stated that they have had no trouble with the men released from the local camp that they have lived up to the

No Less Than Stunning

(By Betty Brown.)

Here is the proper hat for the woman whose appearance we are hesitatingly apply the word "handsome." A demure smile or a pensive expression would be utterly extinguished by its sweeping lines and bold simplicity. The tall, handsome woman, of striking features and coloring would find her "perfect hat" in this creation. It is black velvet with a top of beaver, the upturned brim pierced with a large pin of dull silver and jade.

Several men are released each week and are sent to different parts of the country, often to their former places of residence. A number of prisoners released within the past few weeks were formerly in the United States army and had only taken out their first naturalization papers, and were interned for this reason, as the government was playing "safety first." As fast as the cases of the men can be further investigated by the government agents, men of the less dangerous character will be released.

TRANSGRESSORS AND TRANSGRESSIONS*PRIVATE RALPH W. BENNY
HELD TO GRAND JURY.*Many Face His Honor on Serious Breaches of the Law.

Police Court News.

Private Ralph W. Benny, of Camp Greenleaf, who was arrested several days ago by Detectives Perkins and Swafford and charged with the forgery of express money orders, was bound over to the grand jury Thursday morning in police court in four cases under bond of $500 in each case. In addition to the express money orders, the private is alleged to have passed several checks for $35. The banks upon whom the orders were cashed were the Bank and Trust company, the Hamilton National bank, the First National bank and the Bank of Commerce.

When the soldier was placed under arrest and searched, it will be remembered, the detectives found $3,500 worth of blank money orders in the soldier's possession. The orders identified by a Y. M. C. A. secretary as having been stolen from his hut. Benny stated that he did not steal the orders, but that they were handed to him for a good consideration by a Corp. Moore, who is said to have been badly in need of money following a poker game in which he lost $200. Moore could not be arrested by the detectives, for, even if he had been implicated in the affair, the offense had not been committed in Tennessee insofar as was known. Moore was later placed under arrest by the provost guards at the camp and is held for further investigation of the affair.

Frank Sanders and Henderson Jennings, colored boys, age 16 and 13 respectively, were turned over to Probation Officer Pennebaker for punishment upon a charge of burglary. The boys were seized by Patrolman Albert Holder near the N. C. & St. L. Railroad crossing on Market street about 3 o'clock this morning. The officer's suspicions were aroused, and upon questioning the boys he was convinced that they had just pulled a job. When searched, it was found that their pockets were full of money, principally small coins. The boys were detected trying to pitch the money from their pockets. After they had been lodged at the police station, the officer went along the line of march and picked up an additional $16. In all $55.45 was taken from the youthful house-breakers. They admitted the money was taken from Mike and Jerry poolroom, just across from the Terminal station on Market street, the boys having gained admittance by prying open a transom which opened out on an alley in the rear of the building. The boys will be tried Saturday morning in juvenile court.

Another shop-lifter was arrested yesterday by Detectives Perkins and Swafford and charged with the theft of $21 worth of silk cloth. The operation of the alleged thief, R. J. Sanlin by name, were confined to the D. B. Loveman company, where he was apprehended in the act of slipping the silk goods under his coat. He pleaded guilty and was bound over to the grand jury under bond of $1,000 by Judge Fleming.

Despite their tears for alleged repeated thefts, the last consisting in several dozen pairs of socks, Willie Crowe, Sam Johnson and Willie Snow were sentenced to serve a term in the state reformatory. The young negro boys pleaded bitterly against going "over there," but the judge was unmoved and they were turned over to Probation Officer Pennebaker, who will arrange for their transportation.

W. E. Tucker, a news "butch," was picked up on Cherry street last night by Detectives Perkins and Gillespie and charged with transporting liquor. In his suitcase twelve pints of the contraband was found. He was bound over to the higher court in police court under bond of $500.

E. E. Cheney, a taxi driver for the Yellow Taxicab company, got in bad when, presumably led by a desire to get a good look at J. C. Cade's daughter, who was riding to town with her father in his machine, he passed the car several times darting so close in front at a high rate of speed and then slowing down so quickly that Mr. Cade, to avoid a collision, had to apply the emergency brakes so quick that his differential was stripped. The boy was arrested and fined $10 and costs upon a disorderly conduct charge in police court.

Hal Hobbs, colored, drew a fine of $25 and costs for brutally beating his wife across the head, falling her to the sidewalk where she lay in a pool of blood until she was picked up by passersby. The negro man was arrested by Patrolman Cornett. Further charges will be made against him other than disorderly conduct upon which he was fined this morning.

The labor shortage is expected to improve rapidly, Judge Fleming gave local manufacturers a great boost this morning when he sentenced two hobos, Charles Cristy and Lee Newland, to the United States Employment bureau. Supt. Watts will be urged to find them suitable employment. The boys were picked up this morning on N. C. train No. 3 from Nashville and were detected in the act of passing between one of the vestibules by Patrolman Holder.

75 NOVICES WILL
CROSS HOT SANDS*CEREMONIAL SESSION OF ALHAMBRA TEMPLE.*First Elaborate Ceremony by Local Shriners During War Period.

What promises to be one of the most interesting ceremonial sessions of Alhambra Temple Mystic Shrine, will take place on Saturday of this week, at which time some seventy-five odd novices will be inducted into the mysteries of the Mystic Shrine. This is the sixth ceremonial that has been conducted by Alhambra Temple during the present year, the total number of candidates having exceeded 300, and the Shrine is already large membership brings them to a point where they are very close to a total of 1,000.

Throughout the period of the war the Shriners refrained from any outward demonstrations in the way of parades and their traditional banquets were limited to Hooverized luncheons. On Saturday, Dec. 14, however, the Shriners expect to make up for all that they have passed up on previous occasions. There will be a street parade starting from the courthouse, at 8:30 p.m., the line of march being Georgia avenue to the Hotel Patten and Market street south to the Armory building, where the ceremonial will be held. The parade will be headed by the band of Camp Greenleaf, following which will come the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine in the service, quartered in the camps adjacent to Chattanooga. These will be commanded by Maj. George Ray Tresselt, who will act as chief marshal, and a courier to Fred Cantrell, who bears this title in the local Temple. Next in the line will come the illustrious potentate, John S. Douché, and the members of his Divisions, who will be escorted by Alhambra's forty-piece band and the patrol of thirty zouaves under the direction of Capt. Charles Watson. Next in line will come the nobility of Alhambra Temple wearing their fezzes. Last, but not least will come the real fun producers of the evening. The array of candidates under the chaperonage of Will H. Stokes will be holding to the rope that will be their constant companion until they undergo the many ordeals necessary to make them followers of the prophet.

The Armory building, as on the occasion of previous ceremonials, has been decorated for the event, which will probably be the kind of its kind in point of number of soldiers who will receive the degree. Prior to the ceremonial supper will be served in the Armory and it is expected that from 400 to 500 Nobles of the Mystic Shrine will participate. An invitation has been extended to all surrounding Shriners, and especially those in the military service, to participate in the parade and other activities. The Shriners have been overlooked in the way of preparing for an evening that will be one long remembered by Nobles and novices. The hospitality of Alhambra Temple will be especially noticeable on this occasion, and it will be a source of regret to those who realize that it will be an occasion on which they will say good-bye to the hundreds of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine who will shortly be transferred from the local camps or discharged from military service.

The annual election of Alhambra Temple will take place in the Masonic temple on the evening of Friday, Dec. 20. A great deal of interest in being manifested not only in the election itself, but the reports of officers and chairmen of committees. Indications are that these reports will reveal the fact that the local temple has enjoyed one of the most successful years in its history. In fact, its activities have been so many and varied that even the members themselves have a hard time in enumerating them. They point with pride to the fact that they subscribed and paid for $1,000 of each of the four issues of the liberty bonds. In addition several thousand dollars was devoted to war service and charity work.

CROSS BURNING SANDS

Khorassan Held Ceremonial — Many Take First Degree.

In response to call issued by Royal Visitor Ansel Gadd, the members of El Khorassan temple, No. 120, D. O. K. K., gathered in their hall on Walnut street Thursday evening for a peace ceremonial in honor of the members of El Khorassan temple in their country's service. The ceremony was held in the temple contains forty-four stars. The place of the absent members was taken by proxy by a number of men in uniform from Fort Oglethorpe, who in honor of the boys "over there" were permitted as guests of honor to witness the passing of the burning sands over the burning sands without themselves taking the perilous journey. The following were the initiates: Capt. E. B. Roderick, Sgt. George R. Barnard, Sgt. William E. Spears, George W. Chamblee, E. E. Pickett, J. Marx, Clyde Carson, W. R. Parton, F. S. Johnston, E. M. Stigall, J. M. Parton, Thomas L. Crites, M. R. Stoner, H. G. Grigolite, John C. McKinley, James M. McRee, E. L. Tankersley, W. L. Trice, Arch M. Day.

While the News reporter is not a Khorassan, judging from the sounds issuing at a late hour from the Walnut street hall all the tyros had received or were receiving their full money's worth.

SHEAR THEIR HAIR

Thus Belgians Treat Their Pro-Germans Female.

Bruges, Dec. 13.—(A. P., by Mail.)—An ancient form of punishment in favor in the middle ages has been adopted in Belgium for Belgians who were too friendly toward the German invaders or who listened to their love-making. They have been shorn of their hair. In Bruges several women have suffered this form of retribution and either must remain indoors or patronize the wig makers. It is known that this method has been applied in at least one other place. The scenes attending the application of this punishment have been rather boisterous.

Corporal punishment is visited upon the pro-Germans among the Belgian men, but few of them awaited the wrath of the Belgian avengers. They decamped before the Belgian troops reoccupied the cities and towns which had been held under German domination.

Such cases as these have been remarkably few. The wonder is that there have not been more. The proportion of renegades is so small as to reflect greater glory on poor little Belgium.

As a whole the civil population of Belgium has remained wonderfully loyal. By their system of communal administration, they were enabled to govern themselves while the German was deluding himself that he was ruling. It enabled them to endure physical privations, suffer death and resist the insidious propaganda of the German governors. Von Bissing, and his successor, Von Falkenhause, who attempted to separate the Walloons from the Flemish, and to poison the walls of Belgium's patriotism.
